

Ready for Great Fall Reading? Check out our next Title!

Never Work Harder Than Your Students

by Robin R. Jackson

In this book, Jackson demonstrates how the master teacher mindset can be achieved by rigorously applying seven principles to your teaching until they become your automatic response to students in the classroom. Each chapter provides a detailed explanation of one of the mastery principles, the steps you need to take to apply them to your own practice, and suggestions for how you can begin practicing the principle in your classroom immediately. Jackson offers anecdotes from her own teaching practice as well as from other teachers she has helped to show you how each principle works.

Teaching is a hard job, but this book can assist you and your students to attain the rewards of that hard work.

The seven principles to look forward to inside:

- Start where your students are
- Know where your students are going
- Expect to get students to their goal
- Support your students along the way
- Use feedback to help you and your students get better
- Focus on quality rather than quantity
- Never work harder than your students

Join author Robin R. Jackson - former National Board-certified teacher and middle school administrator, CTLT Change Coach Kathy Dyer, and readers from varied roles in education to read, study and discuss online Jackson's Never Work Harder Than Your Students. Teachers and administrators from various disciplines will benefit from conversation about how any educator can become a master teacher with the right practice. Highlighting seven essential principles of effective teaching, one being "never work harder than your students," Jackson maintains that these specific classroom strategies produce the highest quality teaching. Due to high demand, please register at least 2 weeks prior to the beginning the book study.

How Can I Participate?

- Download the registration form from www.ctlt.org/institutes.php#anchor7
- E-mail to barbara.plaven@ucdenver.edu.
- Your payment will be processed, and you will receive confirmation of payment and registration, along with instructions for logging into the online forum.
- Purchase your copy of the book from your local bookseller. Happy Reading!

Cost

$50 for Fall '09 Book Study
October 19–November 20

1.0 hour of graduate credit from the University of Colorado Denver is available for $60.00 to those who participate in each week's discussion.
Please register no later than 2 weeks prior to the study.