

University of Colorado Denver Graduate Credit Requirements

- Purchase and read the book.
- Participate in the discussion forum each week. “Participation” includes at least two responses to each posted question. Responses may build off another person’s response.
- Participate in at least one of the two live chats during the month.
- Your “end product” will be an online reflection (1-3 paragraphs) and may result in an item you could use as part of your professional growth plan for the school year.
- Complete and submit credit form (available at the end of the book study via email), and pay the fee upon receipt of invoice from UCD.
